

g.tec medical engineering GmbH Software License Agreement

Read the terms and conditions of this agreement carefully before installing the programs. This License Agreement represents the entire agreement between you (the "Licensee" - either an individual or an entity) and g.tec medical engineering GmbH concerning the programs and the accompanying user documentation.

By installing the programs, you accept the terms of the Agreement. If you are not willing to do so, do not continue with the installation.

This software is furnished under a license agreement. The software may be used or copied only under license agreement. No part of this software and documentation may be copied or reproduced in any form without a written consent.

Backups of the software and documentation can be created as necessary to support their use in accordance with this agreement. You may have as many sessions of the program in use at any given time as you have licensed copies.

It is not allowed to attempt to decompile, disassemble or otherwise reverse engineer the software, except for purposes explicitly allowed by law. It is not allowed to remove any trademark, proprietary rights, copyright, disclaimer or warning notice included on or embedded in any part of the software.

Educational software licenses are prohibited to use for commercial purposes. The Classroom Kit allows to use the software for teaching purposes only, for a limited number of concurrent users within one university department.

Limited Warranty

The software will operate in conformance with this documentation. The software should not be relied on as the sole basis to solve problems whose incorrect solution would result in injury to property or person. g.tec disclaims all liability for any direct or indirect damages caused by use or misuse of the software or documentation.
